

10 Commandments for Creating a Culture of Mission in Your Church

- 1. Thou shalt have a clear statement of mission and no agenda above that mission
- 2. Thou shalt have a clear definition of what mission success looks like
- 3. Thou shalt NEVER rely on attendance and giving alone for validation of the mission
- 4. Thou shalt have a clear picture of how every church activity relates to the mission
- 5. Thou shalt eliminate any activity that does not contribute toward the mission
- 6. Thou shalt structure leadership team roles around commandments 1, 2 and 4
- 7. Thou shalt create understanding of the mission through preaching
- 8. Thou shalt tell stories so that people feel the mission whenever possible
- 9. Thou shalt give to every person someone who will personally model the mission
- 10. Thou shalt recruit and train leaders who will follow the first nine commandments
