

Busting Myths of Church Vision

Vision isn't a moment on a Sunday – Vision is a movement happening everyday.

Vision isn't a one-time event – Vision is an ongoing eventuality.

Vision isn't a statement on a wall – Vision is a state of mind led by a call.

Vision isn't a leader's style – Vision is the substance of all leadership.

Vision isn't a featured project to reveal - Vision is a future projection in which to revel.

Vision isn't a upcoming program to launch – Vision is an ongoing picture to paint.

Vision isn't a building for a church's function – Vision is a framework for God's future.

Vision isn't a crystal-ball prognostication – Vision is a bent-knee revelation.

Vision isn't a good idea for that one-day – Vision is God's idea for your every-day.

Vision isn't a realm for envied conference speaking preachers – Vision is the reality for every congregation serving pastor.

Vision isn't a contemplative mountaintop excursion - Vision is a collaborative group discovery.
