

Design Intervention

It's happening all across the world, from Las Vegas to Cambodia. Churches are staging design interventions: rediscovering Christ-centered community, rethinking sacred space, and revolutionizing ministry.

From the Old Testament temple to today's most innovative buildings, churches create effective environments by using their unique story to share The Story.

Design Intervention, a global journey through this revolution in sacred space, was written by Visioneering founder and CEO Mel McGowan.

Download a PDF version of Design Intervention here.