

How Do You Face Change?

Change isn't just something that gets pushed upon us. Change is also inspired, explored, embraced and created by leaders. The Center for Creative Leadership (CCL[®]) in the Europe, Middle East, Africa (EMEA) Region recently hosted "A Day for Change" to explore leadership through the lens of change. Clients, colleagues and leaders from diverse organizations gathered at CCL's new campus in Brussels — a modern workspace designed to drive learning, interaction and creativity. Here, we touch on a few ideas and themes from the event. Adapt and Thrive through TRUST. Allison Maitland, author of Future Work says: Trust your people; Reward outcomes, not hours; Understand the business case; Start at the top; Treat people as individuals. 3 Qualities for Thriving in Change. A mindset of adaptability. The ability to spot new opportunities. Foresight — envisioning where the future is headed.
