

The Importance of Developing Leaders with Todd Adkins

Breakthrough Ideas with Todd Adkins:

- There is a difference between just placing leaders in a role and actually developing leaders for ministry.
- Great leaders are not just intuitive, they are highly intentional as well.
- Systems, process, and structure are critical but the relationship moves people.
- We can do leadership gatherings better by leveraging both technology and collaboration.
- Stop training for the lowest common denominator in the room... raise the bar.
